Trays are one of the most versatile decorative accents in your space. Made from cut white marble, it features rich vein textures that make each unique, as well as a raw honed edge that adds to its natural beauty. Textured, cast brass handles make it fully functional for service, both finished in antiqued brass. The beautiful aesthetic of this tray allows it to function as a display stand, the base for a luxurious array, or simply as a functional piece to serve in style. Marble will vary.
