INAYA STOOL

H: 16 IN, W: 26 IN, D: 32 IN

Espresso Rattan

Contract Recommendations: Adding a lacquer coating provides additional protection.

Seating simplified. This overtly organic stool presents a curved form crafted entirely of rattan, and features dueling espresso and natural finishes intertwining in a hand-woven pattern. The Inaya is versatile enough to be an ottoman, an accent piece, and of course, an additional seating solution. Group multiples together to create the visual of a curved bench, and separate when you need the seat. Finish will vary.
